A Magickal Congress: Paths Joining Together

At Camp Ramblewood, Darlington, Maryland

Activities will include workshops, sweat circles, ritual, spiritual healing, bellydancing, spellcraft, oracular seeing, trancework and bonfire drumming. People from all levels of training, ages, genders and orientations are welcome and will find the Gathering an excellent venue for serious, highly focused magic. We're expecting attendance of 100 to 150 people.

Our ritual drummers will lead us again into the ICARUS Fire Circle, a ritual combining the essences of fire and rhythm into a single, intense magical working.

Record-breakin' Skinnydip! At this year's Gathering, CPC will be teaming up with the Maryland Area Naturist Association (MARNA) on Saturday afternoon to participate in the AANR Skinny Dip. At precisely 3 p.m. CPC and MARNA will gather at the pool to help AANR set a new Guinness North American skinny dippin' record.

Camp facilities include flushing toilets, hot showers, swimming pool, cabins with plumbing and electricity, plenty of space for tent campers, a dining hall serving buffet-style meals, and excellent cellular reception. The site covers about 200 acres, surrounded by trees. Portions of the camp are not easily accessible to handicapped individuals, but CPC provides a golf cart and portable radios for accessibility. Participation in the camp's meal plan is optional. You may bring your own food and do your own cooking.
